

What's been happening at Inclusion?

Holocaust Memorial Day, Jan 27th

"Inclusion College is marking the Holocaust Memorial Day as we think it's important to never forget the events that transpired. It's to remember that it is still recent history, and unfortunately the events are not that far behind us."

"No one is perfect. Even pencils have erasers"

LJ and Katie's Super Smoothies

Ingredients

Fruit of your choice

(For this one, we chose strawberries, pineapples, and raspberries.)

Chop bigger fruit pieces into smaller pieces, add to the blender.

Use Greek yoghurt and coconut milk, add this to the fruit in the blender.

Mix it all together and serve with ice cubes :)

Inclusion Pet Update

Carlos the leopard gecko is a bit unhappy this week because he is due to shed and his eye has been sore. We had to wash his eye with special water and it seems to be helping.

Gibbs the Crested gecko is happy and has enjoyed meeting new students this week, he likes to show off his jumping skills to them.

The snails are still growing and are getting quite big, they are bigger than a kinder egg.

The fish are happy and we have had no fish fatalities. Over Christmas lots of fishlets appeared, they are too small and quick to count.

Student and Staff Pets Facts.

Carly's bearded Dragons

How old are they?

They were born in September, so we believe them to be around 5-6 months.

What are their names?

Izzie and Dora

When did you get them?

Friday 16th December 2022

Why did you get them?

My partner surprised us with them and drove to central London in the evening to pick them up. The children have always wanted them and they are pretty cool to watch!

What do they eat?

Crickets, mealworms, hoppers, vegetables and some fruits

What do they do?

They sunbathe under the heat lamp, they chase their food, they run around and climb the rocks and foliage in their vivarium. They also like to wave and watch you by standing at the very front of the glass!

What is something interesting about them?

They shed their skin quite a lot because they are babies and still growing.

Film Review : Night at the Museum: Battle of the Smithsonian

Title: Night at the Museum: Battle of the Smithsonian

Director: Shawn Levy

Genre: 'Comedy'

Basic plot explanation?

The basic plot is that Larry has left the museum and is now working at a new job. At the museum, they are removing the real displays of history and replacing them with holograms. Larry decides to take it upon himself to stop it from happening.

Who are the main characters?

Larry Daley is the main character. Played by Ben Stiller.

What do you enjoy about it?

There is nothing I majorly enjoy about it. I do like the performance by Hank Azaria, he plays Kah Mun Rah.

Weakest part?

I think the film itself is weak. Because it allowed Ben Stiller to get paid. The concept of the film is just the first one but has aged badly with some references and some hard to watch cultural appropriation. Darth Vader also appears, and it makes no sense, also potentially breaching copyright laws.

Who is the target audience?

The target audience would probably be James Simeon Simon-Norris.

Would you recommend watching this?

Overall, I wouldn't recommend this film.

Rating out of 5 stars?

I would give this film 1.5 stars. Because it's not good. Hank Azaria is funny and saves some of the film.

Credits: AE and FG
